HAWAII'S NEW MOVE.

Provisions of the Proposed New Constitution.

IT WILL BE SUBMITTED IN MAY.

All Offices to Be Filled by Appointment. Registration of Voters Taking Place. Natives Taking No Part in the New Movement—Opposition to the American Union Party.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The steamship Monowai brings the following advices from Honolulu under date of April 6:

Ever since the retirement of President Dole from the office of minister of foreign affairs, he has been engaged in drawing up a new constitution, to be submitted to the convention to be held in May.

The government is very reticent in regard to the new instrument, but it has been ascertained on good authority that by the constitution which President Dole will submit the executive power is to be vested in a president who will not have a seat in the executive council, as is the case now. He will have the right of veto, but such veto can be overruled by a two-thirds vote of the senate and assembly. The vice president will not have a seat in the executive council, either, and his duties will simply be to preside over the senate. The executive council will consist of five members: Minister of foreign affairs, minister of finance, minister of the interior, minister of health and education and minister of justice, or attorney general.

In regard to the legislature, it is understood it will be formed by appointment. The upper house, to be called the senate and to consist of 24 members, will be appointed by the president, vice president and executive council and will hold office for two years. The lower house will consist of 40 members and is to be appointed by the executive council, the senators and assemblymen who have been agreed upon. They are to be called together, and the joint bodies will promulgate a second constitution and fix a date for a general election of the government officials.

L. A. Thurston, the present minister to Washington, is expected here soon, and, it is said, will assume the position of minister of the interior.

Preparations for the constitutional convention are being made. The election of delegates is to take place on May 2. The registration of voters for this election is now proceeding, but has been very slow, only 547 having taken the oath necessary to qualify as electors. Of these the great majority are whites and Portuguese, the natives being kept from registration by their leaders, who are nearly all royalists.

These leaders openly acknowledge that they are attempting to keep the natives from the polls, and one political society has even had printed in a royalist paper a long announcement to the effect that the natives should have nothing whatever to do with the election, as the provisional government is not one of the people and can not last, and that the vengeance of the queen will be visited upon all disloyal subjects when she re-ascends the throne.

The American Union party, although in complete control of politics, has met with opposition on the islands of Maui and Hawaii, the largest islands of the group. The annexationists, who are all connected with the plantations, have strenuously objected to the part of the platform that excludes Chinese labor, and have formed party clubs under the old platform providing for Asiatic labor under proper restrictions.

The newly elected central committee of the American Union party has begun the warfare against the Japanese obtaining the franchise, having passed a stringent resolution to that effect at its first meeting. All the party clubs have passed similar resolutions, but the Japanese still claim they are entitled to recognition and will have rights equal to those of other foreigners.

In the councils yesterday the appropriation bill providing for government salaries for the next two years passed its first reading. The appropriation amounts to $1,510,838, which is much less than the payroll under the old administration.

News has reached here from Auckland that the United States has decided to improve Pearl harbor with the intention of establishing a coaling station there. The fact that Admiral Irwin is at present at Pearl harbor with his aides taking soundings and making surveys, lends color to the report. This is his second visit on the same mission in six weeks.

Ex-Queen Liliuokalani Wants a Pension.

LONDON, April 14.—The Chronicle says that ex-Queen Liliuokalani has become convinced of the hopelessness of her case and is said to be willing to advocate the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the United States with a view to obtaining the pension which President Harrison advised. A petition to that effect is being prepared for submission to President Cleveland.

Shot and Killed Each Other.

DEMING, N. H., April 14.—Jack Redding and David Harper, owners of the celebrated Doe Cabozos mine in old Mexico, shot and killed each other yesterday. Five owners of this mine have met with violent deaths and only one survives.

Six People Probably Drowned.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., April 14.—The schooner Jennie M. Carter, from Sullivan, Me., for Philadelphia with a cargo of paving stones, came ashore here without a soul aboard, and it is believed that the entire crew of six men has perished.

CHARITY PAWN BROKERAGE.

The London Scheme Comes to Smash. High Names Under a Cloud.

LONDON, April 14.—Those wealthy philanthropists in Chicago, New York and elsewhere who are talking about establishing pawnbrokerage establishments through which the poorer classes may obtain loans without the usurious attachments invariably identified with private concerns of that character, may profit by the experience of the "Mont de Pieté of England (limited)," which was formed in 1886 "to help the poor without pauperizing them," and which has gone to smash under circumstances creditable neither to the wisdom nor to the integrity of the people connected with it. The idea was to do philanthropic pawnbroking, and to distribute the profits among the London hospitals and poor borrowers.

Some of the directors, however, seemed to have acted on the principle that charity begins at home, and they have borrowed so much for themselves, their friends and their pet financial schemes that at the end of six years the company finds itself in the bankruptcy court, with debts of a quarter of a million dollars, and assets nil. The chief promoter of the affair has refused to respond to the summons of the court on the ground that he is now a resident of Paris, while the secretary is utterly unable to say what has become of a total of $70,000 received from the public on debenture bonds.

Among the directors of the concern are Lord Osborne, Prince de Polignac, Colonel Ord, secretary of the Primrose club, the organization formed to perpetuate the memory of Lord Beaconsfield, and General Collingwood, an intimate friend of the Prince of Wales. Colonel Ord admits having accepted a few hundred dollars for his services in securing distinguished patrons for the scheme, while it is admitted that something like $20,000 were lent to another director to pay his proportion of a deal to float a Colorado silver mining scheme. The court has not yet decided who is criminally responsible, but it is taken for granted that before many weeks some of the distinguished individuals who have thus diverted public charity to their own benefit will be found in the prisoners' dock of a criminal court.

CHECKED BY STRIKES.

Business Improvement Meets With Many Obstacles.

NEW YORK, April 14.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Business improvement meets many obstacles, and is scarcely as distinct as it has been in recent weeks. Strikes have checked the improvement in building and some other trades, and scarcity of coke has caused the closing of some iron works, while a strike of all bituminous coal workers is ordered and may prove serious.

More favorable crop reports than were expected, which justify larger hopes for next fall, have arrested the upward tendency in prices of products. The renewal of gold exports occasions some disquietude. But the gradual exhaustion of goods in the hands of dealers makes the consumption of the people more distinctly felt and apparently larger, and this demand increases with the gain in number of hands at work.

It can not be said that uncertainty as to the future has materially diminished, but there is an evidently growing impression that there will be no important legislation on the currency or the tariff. This impression, whether erroneous or not, influences the action of many.

On the whole, though progress is still obstructed by uncertainties, it has not been arrested. The most cheering sign is the decrease in importance of commercial failures, for though one mortgage loan concern has failed with liabilities of $5,300,000, the liabilities in all the commercial failures for the first week of April were only $2,190,806, of which $800,547 were of manufacturing and $1,228,240 of trading concerns. The failures this week have been 218 in the United States, against 187 last year, and 84 in Canada, against 22 last year.

COKERS' STRIKE.

The South End Excited, but Peace Prevails in the North End.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 14.—To the people of the southern district of the Connellsville coke region yesterday was the most exciting day since the strike of the coke workers was inaugurated. From daybreak until late at night a force of 1,500 strikers marched in columns to martial music and flying the stars and stripes up and down the country. While no conflict has occurred thus far, these men forced a suspension of work on every plant they passed.

So far as the south end of the region is concerned the strike is again a success.

Strike Over in the North End.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., April 14.—The north end of the coke region is quiet. All the coke works the operators desire to run are in full blast, with plenty of men, and so far as the northern half of the Connellsville region is concerned the strike is practically a thing of the past. There are reports of impending trouble in the south end current here, but these daily alarms are discounted as the awful doings about to happen don't materialize from day to day.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 14.—The First regiment armory, near the corner of First avenue south and Eighth street, was badly damaged by fire last night. Uniforms and rifles, in addition to the company rooms, were destroyed. The fire had the appearance of incendiarism, although such a suspicion is generally discredited. It is doubtful if $30,000 will cover the entire loss, including the government property stored in the building.

MORE BLOOD SPILLED.

This Time It Is on the Samoan Islands.

TRIBAL HOSTILITIES RENEWED

Several Battles Fought and a Number of People Killed—The Foreign Consuls There Trying to Settle the Trouble, but They Are Meeting With Poor Success. The Latest Steamship Arrives.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The steamship Monowai, which arrived yesterday afternoon, brought Samoan advices up to March 28, fully confirming the Associated Press cablegrams from Auckland, which announced the renewal of hostilities among the Samoan natives. The Associated Press correspondent sends the following under date of March 28:

In the past few weeks all hope of peace being maintained here has been dissipated and much Samoan blood has again been shed. When the Aana people submitted their chiefs to a trial before Chief Justice Ide, with a view to the settlement of political differences, it was thought that a peaceful method of dealing with the inter-tribal trouble had been found. But on the 10th inst. the two parties came to actual warfare. Two or three days before the outbreak the rebel party was supplied with a large quantity of ammunition.

The fighting was started by some Aana people firing on three men who were quietly gathering fuel. One of the men was killed, and, according to the Samoan custom, instantly decapitated. The other two, though wounded, contrived to escape. The firing brought more of the government supporters to the scene, and a sharp skirmish ensued, resulting in one of the rebels being killed and six wounded.

The wounded of the government party were brought to Apia, where they were cared for by members of the London Missionary society. Two wounded rebels were looked after in their own district by the same body.

A cessation of hostilities for a day took place, but much excitement was caused by the news that the people of Aana, who sympathized with those of Aana, intended to attack Apia.

At this juncture the consuls issued a proclamation warning armed parties of Samoans from coming within the municipal district. This proclamation was met at by some of the malcontents, but it had a good effect, as it prevented the town from being overrun by armed natives.

On the following Monday an attack was made on the rebel camp, but owing to want of concerted action on the part of the attacking party, the government's supporters were driven back, losing four men and having a large number of wounded, while the rebels escaped without loss.

Matters remained fairly quiet for about a week after this until Monday, the 19th, when quite a large engagement (for Samoan warfare) took place, ending in the complete defeat of the rebels, who lost 10 or 12 men and had a large number of wounded. The loyalists lost about the same number and their list of wounded was also very large.

In the meantime the consuls paid a visit to the other end of the island, and have evidently persuaded the disaffected in that quarter to remain quiet for a time, but an outbreak on their part is daily expected.

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES STRIKE.

The Great Northern Road Partly Tied Up at Spokane, Wash.

SPOKANE, April 14.—The Great Northern road is tied up from Spokane to Great Falls, most of the men on the Kalispell and Montana division and Montana Central being out. West of Spokane the road is operated, trains moving as usual and none of the men out. Assistant General Superintendent Farrell expects no violence, and thinks trains will be running on the two divisions inside of three days.

A message has been received from General Manager Cass denying the report that the Great Northern is running in men to take the places of employees who are members of a railway union. The men here are quiet and wait further developments. The authority of the two men ordering the strike is questioned by many.

A Vein of Gold-Bearing Sand.

PORTLAND, Ind., April 14.—While drilling a water well on North Meridian street yesterday evening, a vein of genuine gold-bearing sand was struck, which is rich with the yellow metal, and has excited the curiosity of all. Gold, and silver, too, have been found at various places near here lately, but this last strike is the richest of them all. Quite a number of experienced miners are prospecting, and are unanimous in the opinion that the field is a good one.

A Clock of Great Antiquity.

WABASH, Ind., April 14.—Mrs. K. T. A. Straw of North Manchester, this county, has just received from her relatives in Pennsylvania an old-fashioned "wall-sweep" clock, which belonged to her great-great-grandfather, and is 200 years old. The ancient timepiece runs regularly, keeps as good time as any modern clock, striking the hours on a same bell, and in the same manner as it did during the seventeenth century, when it was in its halcyon period.

SULLIVAN, Ind., April 14.—An $8,000 fire occurred at Hyer's yesterday, completely destroying the fine 2-story brick block embracing the store and residence of M. M. Zener. The Odd Fellows hall and all records were destroyed. The Odd Fellows carried $200 insurance in the Royal and $500 in the Farmers' of York, Pa.

CANADA'S TARIFF

Very Much After Our Protectionists' Ideas.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Representative Wheeler of Alabama prints in The Congressional Record the full text of the new tariff bill that has been prepared by the minister of finance and laid before the Canadian parliament for its action.

Mr. Wheeler believes it will be interesting reading to representatives and others, but he regrets that the reductions in rates have not been more material.

"It will be observed," said he, "that the duties upon some classes of woolen goods are proposed to be reduced, and the same may be said of some classes of goods in the cotton schedule. These reductions, however, are slight, and to this extent will be disappointing to the American people. It will be seen that the metal schedule shows a reduction in many kinds of iron and agricultural implements, but they are not so great as we had hoped and had reasons to expect. Mowing machines, harvesters, horse rakes, and similar farming implements are reduced from 35 to 20 per cent ad valorem. Portable machinery and steam engines are cut down from 35 per cent to 30 per cent ad valorem. Cotton fabrics, printed, dyed or colored, are placed at 30 cents, where the former rate was 32 1-2. What is also disappointing to me," said Mr. Wheeler, "is the fact that the duty on coal is retained at 60 cents on the ton. I had hoped it would be placed at half that figure."

TRYING ORDEAL.

One Man on the Witness Stand For Four Days.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 14.—Joseph J. Robinson, teller of the Indianapolis National bank, has now been on the witness stand enduring the strain of a rigid direct examination for four days and the long siege is telling on him. His direct testimony will soon be completed and he will then be assigned to the tender mercies of ex-Attorney General Miller.

The testimony was on the same line as the previous day, additional acts of misapplication of the funds being proved by the books. A half million dollars had been secured by the officers of the Indianapolis National bank by means of bogus drafts of imaginary concerns, the officers of which were the same as those of the cabinet company—the defendants, the Coffins and Reed. It was proved that President Haneghy of the bank was a party to the transactions, but it has not been developed that he got a cent of the money. This is the unrevealed mystery: What was in it for him?

YOUNG BARONS

Working Like Common Sailors Bench San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 14.—The German sailing vessel, Eimin Pasha, now in port, has two sons of wealthy noblemen among her crew. One is the young Baron Walter D. Macar, son of a prominent nobleman of Liege, Belgium, who is a large landed proprietor. The son is an apprentice, and his father paid 750 francs for his tuition in seamanship on this cruise. The young baron messes with the officers. Although he receives only a shilling a day, he is amply provided with pocket money. He has entertained all the officers while here. He takes drives to the Cliff House, gives swell breakfasts, and has spent much money at the midwinter fair. The other is the young Baron Colmar Von Rondeau. He is only 17 years old, and is working before the mast. His voyage is disciplinary, and he does not have any large allowance.

SMALLPOX PATIENT.

A Colored Tramp Furnishes a Scare For Indianapolis Officials.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 14.—Major Higgins, a colored tramp arrested here Thursday, has turned out to be a smallpox patient. When his true condition was discovered the city board of health took prompt action. The Central police station was placed under a 24-hour quarantine at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and a dozen patrolmen and the police matron are prisoners within its walls.

Superintendent of Police Powell has pitched temporary headquarters in the city hall. All persons who were exposed will be vaccinated. Higgins slept in a room with 25 other tramps the first night of his incarceration. He is now dwelling in a tent outside the city. Much excitement prevails.

DUEL WITH KNIVES.

A Preacher and a Tobacco Man Settle a Little Difficulty.

FULTON, Ky., April 14.—There was a duel with knives at Water Valley yesterday between a preacher named Yates and a tobacco man named Ed Williams. Besides dispensing the holy word, Parson Yates runs a farm. Yesterday he brought a load of tobacco to Water Valley and he and Williams became involved in a dispute and hot words were exchanged.

The parson went away, but returned later, accompanied by a man named Cassion, who held the door to the store while Williams and Yates settled their troubles with knives. Williams was cut several times and is seriously injured.

Mother and Daughter Severely Burned.

LEAVENWORTH, Ind., April 14.—Mrs. Gorman, wife of a farmer, while over-seeing the toiling of soap, caught her clothing on fire. Her daughter, 19, went to her, and with a heavy comfort and by using water she succeeded in extinguishing the flames, but not until her mother was burned from head to foot and Miss Gorman's hands were severely scorched. It is feared that the mother is fatally burned. Miss Gorman was preparing to leave for Cincinnati to make purchases for her wedding.

CROSSED THE LINE.

Coxey's Commonwealth Army Is Now in Maryland.

A VERY CHILLY RECEPTION.

No Decrease in the Army Because the Men Fear the Mountaineers—The Western Contingent Making Rapid Progress. Trains Taken Possession of and Railroad Officials Powerless.

GRANTSVILLE, Md., April 14.—The army of the commonwealth passed the state line at 11 o'clock yesterday on the tramp over the Alleghenies from Addison to this backwood hamlet. To the air of "My Maryland" was the march across the line made. Three cheers were then given for the grand old Keystone state, as Marshal Browne expressed it with a wave of his huge brimmed white hat. Camp was laid in a delightful valley with a stream coursing through. The men slept in an abandoned distillery.

The size of the army has not decreased and will not until the mountains are passed, as the men stand in deadly fear of the mountaineers.

The stop tonight will be at Frostburg, where the town council has raised $100 for the cause.

At Cumberland, which will be reached Sunday, their reception will be as chilly as it was here, and that is saying much.

The next camp will be named Robert E. Lee.

THE WESTERN CONTINGENT.

Railroad Officials Pushing the Army Eastward as Fast as They Can.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 14.—The industrial army arrived at 3 p. m., with banners flying and men cheering. The train was not permitted to stop within the city limits, but engines were changed at Collette, five miles west of the city, and the train of 26 cars was afterwards run through East Cheyenne, where a brief stop was made to take on a supply of provisions, including 1,000 loaves of bread and five beavers, furnished by the city, enough to feed the men until North Platte, Neb., is reached.

The railroad officials decided to push the army right through Nebraska on fast freight schedule. General Kelly and his men expected to go via Denver, but the Union Pacific refused to run the train south. General Kelly said: "I had hoped to call on Governor White, and I thank him personally for his expression of sympathy. But it is impossible. We must hurry on to Washington as rapidly as possible while we have the opportunity."

PASSING THROUGH INDIANA.

Governor Matthews Seriously Considers the Situation.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 14.—Vice President Peabody of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railroad yesterday sent the following to Governor Matthews: "About 50 men captured one of our freight trains and are on their way east. We have advices that about 800 more men are camped near St. Louis and will probably undertake to repeat the operation. What suggestion have you as to Indiana?"

To this Governor Matthews replied: "For the unlawful seizure of property within the state of Illinois, I have no suggestion to offer. The Indiana authorities will protect the life and property of persons within her borders if called upon to do so."

The governor has heard nothing further from the Baltimore and Ohio officials, but has noted the press dispatches to the effect that tramps and recruits for Coxey's army are in camp along railway lines west of Indiana's border. He is considering the situation that may be thrust upon him if large bodies of men cross over into Indiana.

First California Regiment.

VANDALIA, Ill., April 14.—The first California regiment of the United States industrial army, numbering about 400 men, under the command of General Frye, arrived in Vandalia yesterday afternoon and camped on the western bank of the Okaw river just east of this city. The army presents a destitute appearance. By an act of the city council provisions sufficient for two meals were provided for them.

They Let the Boiler Run Dry.

CELINA, O., April 14.—A terrific boiler explosion occurred on Fred Alber's farm south of Cold Water, this county, yesterday afternoon, in which John Duddeson, the driver, had his skull fractured and face horribly scalded, from which injuries he can not recover. George Mertz was thrown a distance of 100 feet and was slightly injured. The force of the explosion hurled pieces of iron weighing over 200 pounds a distance of 800 feet. The explosion was caused by letting the boiler run dry.

Found Hanging to a Tree.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 14.—The body of William Lewis, colored, was found hanging to a tree near Jamison yesterday. The corpse was riddled with bullets. Lewis is the man who murdered Robert Shields, a white planter, recently, splitting his skull open with an ax. A posse of citizens pursued, but yesterday came the first intimation that they found him.

Shot at the Lamps.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., April 14.—Yesterday evening as the westbound accommodation train dashed into the Bridgeport tunnel Clark Harvey, a passenger, who was intoxicated, pulled a revolver and fired five shots at the lamps, which created a panic among the passengers. He was arrested and is now in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury.

Warmer; fair weather; variable winds.

The Ledger thinks Senator Hill is "a bigger man than Grover C." He may be, and no doubt is, in the estimation of Republicans, but no man was ever more unanimously denounced by the Democratic press than Mr. Hill has since his speech this week.

The New York World predicts that Senator Hill will vote for the tariff bill, income tax and all. It thinks Hill's speech was a grand bluff, and says his closing sentences disclose the fact that his backbone is not strong enough to hold him up against the sentiment of his party throughout the land. Mr. Hill is finding out, if he reads the papers, that the Democratic party is not to be bluffed.

This iniquity and injustice of the sugar bounty becomes more apparent as the workings of the system are disclosed. One single planter in Louisiana gets on last year's crop $468,000 bounty, another gets $392,200 and several other get more than $200,000 each. Commenting on this, the Baltimore Sun says: "What public service have these planters done to the people of Maryland and Virginia, for instance, that they should be pensioned? Is the profit of wheat-growing so great that a portion of it should be taken away to bestow upon the sugar-grower? The sugar-grower may contend that he is of as much value to the country as Carnegie, and Carnegie gets more from the people than he does. This is one of the most baleful features of the whole system. It makes men look to a paternal government instead of their own honest endeavor and enterprise, and it is a gross and flagrant injustice to men who, like the wheat-grower, can reap no advantage from the system. It is against the whole scheme of republican government, for the foundation rock of that system must be equality before the law."

The New York Times has been conducting a little investigation into the conditions of pensioners in the towns of Ogdensburg, Watertown, Gouverneur and Potsdam, that State. The cases of 250 men have been looked into, and their circumstances ascertained. The men in question are pensioners under the act of June 27th, 1890, which grants a pension of not less than $6 nor more than $12 a month to all soldiers who served ninety days and were honorably discharged, who may be "suffering from a mental or physical disability of a permanent character, not the result of their own vicious habits, which incapacitates them for the performance of manual labor in such a degree as to render them unable to earn a support."

In a general way it is stated that in some towns 25 per cent. of those receiving the maximum amount, $12 a month, on the ground that they are incapable of manual labor, are among the hardest-working and most thriving of the residents of the towns in which they live. The Times reporter found them working in machine shops, piling lumber in lumberyards, digging sewers, working as carpenters at full wages and carrying on farms of from 50 to 400 acres. The amount of pension granted had no apparent relation to the degree of disability. A stonemason working full time was found to be getting as much as a man that was insane or helplessly crippled. An old man of seventy-six years, with brain disease, was getting $12 a month, to which he was clearly entitled under the law. His son, who was found piling heavy lumber was getting the same amount.

THE COUNTY ASSESSMENT.

About $500,000 Less Than Last Year.
The Committee's Good Work Before the State Board.

The committee from this county consisting of Colonel W. W. Baldwin, Judge Wall, Messrs J. Foster Barbour, John W. Alexander and A. K. Marshall and Assessor John C. Everett appeared before the State Board of Equalization at Frankfort on yesterday to protest against the proposed increase in the assessment.

The assessment of the county was nearly $1,000,000 less than last year, but transfers did not show any depreciation in values, and upon the face of the papers the State Board had decided to raise the assessment of lands 17 per cent. and that of town lots 13 per cent.

The committee made a strong appeal to the Board, however, and explained the fictitious nature of many of the transfers, convincing the Board of the great depreciation in values, and it was decided finally to fix the increase on lands at only 12 per cent. and on town lots at only 6 per cent., making a saving to the county of about $4,000, and making the assessment about $500,000 less than last year.

In view of the laws governing the Board, the committee did well to secure any concessions at all. The reason that the increase on town lots was less than on lands was because the value of town lots had been increased about $110,000 by the County Assessor, whilst the value of lands was decreased $500,000.

POLITICS IN CARTER.

Judge Wilhoit Says Washington Will Get the County in the Appellate Race.

Hon. E. B. Wilhoit, one of the leading Democrats of Carter County, has been interviewed by the Cincinnati Post as to the political outlook in his section. He said: "The race for the Appellate Judgeship is attracting the most attention. Colonel George Washington, of Newport, doubtless has the most strength in Carter County. Washington and Goebel, outside of the Confederate veterans, have about equal strength, but as the former was in the Confederate service, more veterans are supporting him. Goebel and Applegate both have considerable strength. I am a Goebel man."

"Clay will carry Carter County in the gubernatorial race. He carried the county three years ago, and is stronger now than he was then."

"Rolla K. Hart appears to have a walk-over for Congress. Paynter will not be a candidate again for Congress, and I learn that he will not enter the Judgeship contest. Notwithstanding Carter adjoins Greenup County, Paynter could not carry it for Judge."

First Case on Record.

Religious Herald: "A brother tells us that the Baptist Church, of which he is a member, has excluded its only rich member. Here is an account of the affair: 'We had nothing against him except that he gave very miserly sums, when we all knew he could do much better if he would. His example was demoralizing. We all felt that the church would do better without him, and we told him so; and, as he continued to cling to his money, we solemnly decided to worry no longer over him, and hence we turned him out, and the church has been much more prosperous since. I believe that other churches might profit by our example in this particular.'"

IRON AND STEEL.

The American Manufacturer Pronounces the Trade Slowly But Surely Improving.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 12.—The American Manufacturer will say editorially on the iron and steel trade to-morrow:

While there is little distinctively new in the iron and steel market this week, the general situation seems to show encouraging features. It is evident that the condition of the iron and steel trade is improving slowly but steadily. For this there are various reasons. The spring season should make some improvement in business, and the railroad companies will soon begin to purchase more extensively in the iron and steel market.

The situation in the soft steel market is fully as good, if not slightly better, than it was last week, and it is said that makers are showing more firmness in the matter of prices. Other lines of the market show improved prospects.

THE FIFE MEETINGS.

An Offering of Nearly $1,000 Given the Evangelist Last Night. Sunday Services.

There is no abatement in the great revival. The oldest citizen does not remember anything like the present awakening.

The services Friday were marked with their usual interest and zeal. The evangelist talked very earnestly at the morning service on the Word of God. It was a strong appeal to the audience to preserve pure and entire the Holy Word of God. He said the battle was to-day between trust and falsehood, and that every true man should take a bold stand for the truth.

At night the house was again packed. The evangelist spoke to those out of Christ, and with many forcible illustrations he showed the great danger of putting off salvation. In the after meeting about forty confessed Christ.

The services will close on Sunday night. A free will offering of about $1,000 was made to the evangelist. If any wish to contribute they can leave it with Mr. Robert Cochran at the Bank of Maysville. This sum is in addition to that previously given him for his expenses.

THE State Board of Equalization has agreed to a reduction of $2,000,000 on the aggregate of the assessment of property in Louisville and Jefferson County for this year. This makes the total assessment of that city and county $121,000,000, which is $10,000,000 less than the previous year.

The last Legislature passed an act making it the duty of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals to report all fees to the State Auditor, and requiring the Judges of the Court to prescribe the duties of the Clerk and fix his compensation therefor. Thursday in the Franklin Circuit Court, in an agreed statement of the facts, Judge Cantrill decided that the act was unconstitutional. The ground of the decision was that the Legislature could not delegate its powers to any other body, but must fix the compensation in the act. The case will be appealed and advanced in order to settle the matter at once.

THE next annual meeting of the Kentucky Encampment, G. A. R., will be held at Hopkinsville. The election of officers was completed, as follows: E. L. Mattley, of Bowling Green, Junior Vice Commander; Rev. D. F. Keer, also of Bowling Green, Chaplain; Ransie Hazell, of Smith's Grove, Quartermaster, and Mr. Sanders, of Mayfield, Historian. The result of the election of delegates to the National Encampment was as follows: Colonel R. M. Kelly, 87; Colonel H. M. Buckley, 73; Louis R. Robinson, 79; S. P. Jack, 72; W. C. Merrow, 51; John Fowler, 47; H. J. Hanley, 38; J. G. Timberlake, 38; Captain Americus Whedon, 33; J. H. Browning, 32; J. C. Hicks, 28; S. Douglass, 28; S. Ninekirk, 23; W. C. Serec, 21; William McGuire, 21; Albert Scott, 19; James O'Connor, 19.

THE Disciples of Jesus the Christ will conduct their usual service to-morrow at 10:45 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:15 p. m. Morning subject, "The Means Jesus Took to Universalize His Mission." Night subject, "A Continuation of the Study of Beginnings, Applied to Jesus and the Apostolic Christology."

The value of man's judgment, or notion, of any matter presented to him is measured by his knowledge of the thing presented. If he is ignorant of it, silence then would be golden. Neither should we mistake gush and enthusiasm for knowledge. Shallow streams make the most noise, and reveal the irregularities of the surface over which they pass. To be born of a storm is afterwards to lie supine, where neither anchor or sail is of any use. To know the Eternal in the manifoldness of his revealings, is the knowledge that springs the arch of an eternal hope,—is to be in daily fellowship with the Divine.

IN a recent issue of the BULLETIN was published a transfer of sixty acres of land from J. M. Walten to Carrie H. Walton. The land lies partly in Mason and partly in Bracken County, between the farms of L. H. Mannen and Thomas Coughlin. It was bought eight years ago and the transfer was recorded at that time in Bracken County, but not recorded in Mason until recently. This explanation has been rendered necessary in order to correct an idea that the transfer has just been made.

MR. CHARLES WETZEL, the oil dealer, who was injured in a runaway accident Thursday, did not rest very well last night, but was somewhat better this morning. The accident occurred on Bridge street and was caused by his horse taking fright at an electric car. The animal started to run, and Mr. Wetzel was thrown off, the wheels of his wagon passing over his chest and abdomen. Dr. Browning who was passing took him to his home on Forest avenue. Mr. Wetzel's injuries are very painful, but his physician thinks he will be about all right in a short time. He has been rather unfortunate of late, as his horse ran off a week or two ago and broke up his wagon.

BEHRING SEA AFFAIR.

A Question of $15,000,000 Damages Now Ready For Discussion.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The question of compensation for alleged seizures of Canadian vessels by the United States, referred to in the British parliament, in regard to which it was said the United States had already intimated a disposition to begin negotiations toward reaching a settlement, is a matter which did not receive the attention of the Paris tribunal of arbitration, although that tribunal did consider certain questions of fact concerning the seizure of a number of Canadian vessels, and did unanimously find the facts as set forth by the United States to be true.

The tribunal found that several seizures were made under the authority of the United States government, but had not examined into the value of such vessels or their contents, and no action was taken binding the United States to pay any compensation, that being left over to subsequent negotiations.

The claims amounted to about $15,000,000, and these were formerly presented to Great Britain soon after the tribunal adjourned, although they had been the subject of correspondence between the two governments ever since the researches took place in Behring sea in 1893, 1897, 1899 and 1900.

Secretary Gresham declined to take up the matter until after the two governments had completed all necessary legislation to carry into effect the decisions of the tribunal for the protection of seals, and is still the position of the state department in the matter.

It is not at all likely that the matter of compensating Canadians will be settled until it is found out whether the United States will not have claims for damages growing out of the failure to adopt its fur seal regulations earlier this season.

The procedure of presidential proclamations in the Behring sea matter is altogether a very tame affair compared with the importance which is attached to it by those who are unfamiliar with the ways of government.

When congress passed the bill placing the decision of the Paris tribunal on the United States statutes and it became a law by presidential signature, it was binding on every American citizen from that moment. The pleading of ignorance of that statute would probably have been considered worthless in any court in the land. Some of the advisers of the government contended that additional security was to be found in a formal proclamation of the new law, as international questions were involved, and in order to forestall any possible flaw that might be raised to cause any future trouble, the proclamation was decided upon.

Then one of the great red tape machines of the government was called into action. There is a printing establishment in the state department. Secret documents are printed there surrounded by more precautions than are observed in making bank notes. To this establishment was taken a carefully compared typewritten copy of the presidential proclamation which consisted of an ordinary print of the act of congress with a couple of perfunctory phrases "proclaiming" its provisions and stating that the president had heretofore set his hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed, together with the date.

Proofs were corrected a dozen times by a dozen different men and women, who, nevertheless, overlooked at least seven typographical errors, and finally several hundred copies were printed upon the heaviest blue bond paper.

A few of these were filed away in the archives of the state department, while the remainder were delivered to the secretary of the navy to be distributed among the commanders of the 12 vessels which are to patrol the forbidden waters, and by them handed to the captains of the vessels in officially warning them not to take seals. Probably less than 100 copies will be used altogether. That is the true story of the whole proclaiming business.

WAGES RESTORED.

Judge Dundy of Omaha Renders a Very Important Decision.

OMAHA, April 14.—Judge Dundy has ordered the wages of Union Pacific employees restored to the old rate. This applies to all the employees of the Union Pacific whose salaries were cut last September.

The opinion rendered in connection with the order is a very extensive one, covering the entire history of the wage troubles on the Union Pacific and the hearing before Judge Caldwell. Judge Dundy declares that Judge Caldwell, in his famous order, misstated facts and took malicious pleasure in passing strictures on him.

TEN LIVES LOST.

Such Is Believed to Be the Extent of the Buffalo Disaster.

BUFFALO, April 14.—The loss by the fire in the American grape sugar works is now estimated at over $1,000,000.

An effort is still being made to learn the number of those employed in the building who lost their lives.

Up to the present time 10 men, mostly Poles, who were employed in the works, have not been accounted for and it seems almost certain that they perished in the fire. The names are: John Casper, John Blum, Mike Gmity, John Odeska, John Hubert, Steve Sinski, James Lohell, George Jekpa, John Singer, Tony Hoffman.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—After a heated session of two hours and a half, the Democratic caucus, yesterday, decided by a vote of 80 to 44 to instruct the committee on rules to report a new rule to ascertain and record the presence of a quorum whether voting or not. Practically all the Democratic members of the house attended the caucus.

PUBLIC ROADS.

People of the Magisterial Districts Asked to Recommend a Suitable Person for Overseer.

The committee appointed by the Fiscal Court to redistrict the public road system of the county and draft rules and regulations for its government request the people of the various Magisterial districts of the county to recommend to the Fiscal Court some suitable person for Road Supervisor, and the said Supervisor to recommend to the court an overseer for each road in his district.

The members of the committee referred to above met at the County Clerk's office yesterday. The question of improving the county roads was extensively discussed, but no definite action was taken, except to issue the above request.

There are 1004 miles of public roads in the county, outside of Washington district which has not been reported.

The people of the various Magisterial districts should select good men for the positions of Supervisors, and the Supervisors should recommend active men for overseers.

There is nothing that so increases the value of property throughout the county as good roads, and there is room for improvement along this line in Mason.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by J. James Wood.

BRAZILIAN BATTLES.

At First the Insurgents Are Victorious, but Finally Compelled to Retreat.

LONDON, April 14.—A special dispatch to The Times from Montevideo says that advices have been received there from Rio Grande do Sul showing that after severe fighting the insurgent forces that attacked the city succeeded in occupying the suburbs, the government troops falling back upon the city proper.

On Tuesday reinforcements for the government troops arrived, whereupon Admiral Mello ordered his forces to re-embark on the insurgent warships. They left the harbor on Thursday. Yesterday the insurgents' ships landed men at Castilho.

Serious Fire Loss to a Village.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., April 14.—Fire broke out here yesterday in Woiler's stable and destroyed all that portion of the town between the railroad depot and McCann's hotel on the north side of Main street. The loss is estimated at $40,000. Most of the buildings burned were frame. The insurance will not cover one-fourth of the loss.
